

DOG MERSFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

Dogmersfield Parish Council

CODE OF CONDUCT

Adopted: July 2020

Review date: May 2021

DOGMERSFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

INTRODUCTION AND INTERPRETATION

As a member and representative of this Council it is your responsibility to comply with this Code when you undertake or claim to be undertaking Council business or give the impression that you are undertaking Council business.

As a representative of this Council your actions impact on how the Council as a whole is viewed by the public. It is important, therefore, that you don't do anything when undertaking Council business which you could not justify to the public. It is not enough to avoid actual impropriety, you should at all times avoid any occasion for suspicion or appearance of improper conduct.

This Code is based upon the seven principles of public life which are:

Selflessness

You must serve only the public interest and must never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person including yourself.

Objectivity

In carrying out public business you must make decisions on merit, including when making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits.

Accountability

You are accountable for your decisions and actions to the public and must submit yourself to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to your office.

Openness

You must be as open as possible about your actions and those of your Council, and must be prepared to give reasons for those actions. You must raise issues concerning Council business as soon as reasonably practical.

Honesty and integrity

You must not place yourself in situations where your honesty and integrity may be questioned, must not behave improperly and must on all occasions avoid the appearance of such behaviour.

Leadership

You must promote and support high standards of conduct when serving in your public post, in particular as characterised by the above requirements, by leadership and example in a way that secures or preserves public confidence.

You shall have regard to those principles when fulfilling your role.

1. GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

When undertaking Council business, you must:

- 1.1. treat others with respect and ensure that you are aware of and comply with all legal obligations that apply to you as member or co-opted member of the Council and act within the law; timely and constructive communications within the Council and externally are essential;
- 1.2. not use or attempt to use your position as a member improperly to give yourself or any other person, an advantage or disadvantage;
- 1.3. when reaching decisions on any matter, consider any relevant advice provided to you by the Proper Officer in accordance with his or her statutory duties;
- 1.4. not bully any person;
- 1.5. not do anything which compromises or is likely to compromise the impartiality of those who work for, or on behalf of, the Council;
- 1.6. not disclose information given to you in confidence by anyone, or information acquired by you which you believe, or ought reasonably to be aware, is of a confidential nature, except where:
  - 1.6.1. you have the consent of a person authorised to give it;
  - 1.6.2. you are required by law to do so;
  - 1.6.3. the disclosure is made to a third party for the purpose of obtaining professional legal advice provided that the third party agree not to disclose the information to any other person; or
  - 1.6.4. the disclosure is:
    - a) reasonable and in the public interest; and
    - b) made in good faith and in compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Council;
    - c) not preventing another person from gaining access to information to which that person is entitled by law; and
- 1.7 not conduct yourself in a manner which could reasonably be regarded as bringing your office or the Council into disrepute.
- 1.8 not make or repeat remarks that could cause offence.

2. INTERESTS

Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

- 2.1. You must register and declare any Disclosable Pecuniary Interests that relate to your public duties as required by this Code, and set out in Appendix 2.
- 2.2. You must, within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council or your taking office as a member or co-opted member, register any Disclosable Pecuniary Interests with the Council's Proper Officer, where the Disclosable Pecuniary Interest is yours, your spouse's or civil partner's, or is the Disclosable Pecuniary Interest of somebody with whom you are living as a husband or wife, or as if you were civil partners. Disclosable Pecuniary Interests will be recorded in the Council's Register of Members' Interests.

DOGMERSFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

- 2.3. Within 28 days of becoming aware of any new Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or change to any such interest already registered, you must register details of that new interest or change in writing to the Council's Proper Officer.
- 2.4. Where any business of the Council relates to or affects a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest whether registered under 2.2 or 2.3 above or not and you attend the meeting of the Council or Committees at which that business is to be considered, you must:
- not seek to influence a decision about that business;
  - disclose to that meeting the existence and nature of that interest no later than the start of the consideration of the business in which you have that interest, or (if later) the time at which the interest becomes apparent to you. The exception to the requirement to disclose an interest is if the matter is a sensitive interest under paragraph 2.11;
  - withdraw from the meeting as soon as it becomes apparent that the business is being considered at that meeting; unless you have obtained a dispensation from the Council or Clerk.
- 2.5. Following any disclosure at a meeting of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest not on the Council's register or the subject of pending notification, you must notify the Proper Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of the disclosure at the meeting in order for the interest to be included in the register.
- 2.6. Unless dispensation has been granted, you may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to any matter in which you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest. Additionally, you must observe the restrictions the Council places on your involvement in matters where you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest as defined by the Council and set out in this Code.
- 2.7. (1) In addition to the Disclosable Pecuniary Interests notifiable under the Localism Act 2011, you must, within 28 days of:
- a) this Code being adopted by or applied to the Council; or
  - b) your election or appointment to office (where that is later), give written notification to the Proper Officer of the details of your other personal interests, as defined in 2.8(1) (i) and (ii) below, for inclusion in the register of interests. The exception to this requirement is if the detail of the personal interest is classified as sensitive – see paragraph 2.11
- (2) You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new personal interest or change to any such registered interest, notify the Proper Officer of the details of that new change.

Personal Interests

- 2.8. (1) You have a personal interest in any business of the Council where
- a. it relates to or is likely to affect:
    - I. any body of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management and to which you are appointed or nominated by the Council;
    - II. any body:
      - a) exercising functions of a public nature;
      - b) established for charitable purposes; or

DOGMERSFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

- c) one of whose principle purpose includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union), of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management.
  - b. a decision in relation to any business of the Council might reasonably be regarded as affecting your well-being or financial position or the well-being or financial position of a significant person to a greater extent than the majority of other council tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the electoral division, as the case may be, affected by the decision;
- (2) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) below, where you are aware of a personal interest described in paragraph (1) above in any business of the Council and you attend a meeting of the Council at which the business is considered you must disclose to that meeting the existence and nature of that interest at the start of the consideration of that business, or when the interest becomes apparent to you.
- (3) Where you have a personal interest in any business of the Council which relates to or is likely to affect a significant person (see paragraph 1(b) above, you need only disclose to the meeting the existence and nature of that interest if and when you address the meeting on that business.
- (4) Where you have a personal interest but the interest is not detailed in the Council's register of members' interest because of the sensitive nature of the interest, you must indicate to the meeting that you have a personal interest, but need not to disclose the sensitive information to the meeting.
- 5) Any personal interests notified to the Proper Officer will be included in the register of interests.
- 6) A copy of the register will be available for the public inspection and will be published on the Council's website.

Prejudicial Interests

- 2.9. (1) Where you have a personal interest in any business of your Council you also have a prejudicial interest in that business where the interest is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest and where that business:
- a. affects your financial position or the financial position of a person or body described in paragraph 2.8 (1) (a) (i) and (ii); or
  - b. relates to determining any approval, consent, licence, permission or registration in relation to you or any person or body described in paragraph 2.8.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3) and (4), where you have a prejudicial interest in any business of your Council:
- a. You may not participate in any discussion of the matter at a meeting.
  - b. You may not participate in any vote taken on the matter at a meeting.
  - c. You must disclose the existence and nature of the interest to the meeting and leave the room where the meeting is held while any discussion or voting takes place on the matter. The exception to the requirement to disclose the detail of the interest is if the matter is a sensitive interest under paragraph 2.11. In these circumstances you need only state that you have a prejudicial interest and that the details are withheld because of the sensitive information involved.

(3) Where you have prejudicial interest in any business of your Council, you may attend a meeting but only for the purpose of making representation, answering questions or giving evidence relating to the business, provided members of the public are also allowed to attend the meeting for the same purpose, and you leave the meeting room immediately after making representations, answering questions or giving evidence.

Receipts of Gifts and Hospitality

- 2.10. (1) You must, within 28 days of receipt, notify the Proper Officer in writing of any gift, benefit or hospitality with a value in excess of £25 which you have accepted as a member from any person or body other than the Council.
- (2) The Monitoring Officer will place your notification on a public register of gifts and hospitality.

Sensitive Interests

- 2.11. If you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or a Personal or Personal and Prejudicial Interest but you consider that disclosure of the interest could lead to you or a person connected with you being subject to violence or intimidation and the Proper Officer agrees with that assessment then instead of disclosing the interest you need only disclose that you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or Personal or Personal and Prejudicial Interest (as the case may be). In such instances any published version of the register of interests will exclude details of the interest but may state that you have an interest, the details of which are withheld.

APPENDIX 1 – DOGMERSFIELD COUNCIL’S CODE OF CONDUCT INTERPRETATION

In the Council’s Code of Conduct the following words shall have the following meanings ascribed to them:

- “the Act” means the Localism Act 2011.
- “Disclosable Pecuniary Interest” is as defined in Appendix 2.
- “meeting” means any meeting of the Council, or any of the Council’s Committees; whether or not the press and public are excluded from the meeting in question by a resolution of members.
- “member” includes a co-opted member and an appointed member.
- “sensitive information” means information relating to a member’s interests that the Proper Officer has determined need not be included in the member’s registration of an interest or any change to that interest, by virtue of the fact that its availability for inspection by the public is likely to create a serious risk that any person may be subjected to violence or intimidation.
- “bullying” means offensive, intimidating, malicious, insulting or humiliating behaviour based on abuse or misuse of power or Council which attempts to undermine.
- “disrepute” means a lack of good reputation or respectability which can be reasonably regarded as reducing the public’s confidence in that member being able to fulfil their role or adversely affecting the reputation of members generally in being able to fulfil their role.
- “relevant person” in relation to personal and personal and prejudicial interests means
  - a. a member of your family or any person with whom you have a close association; or
  - b. any person or body who employs or has appointed such persons, any firm in which they are a partner, or any company of which they are directors; or
  - c. any person or body in whom such persons have a beneficial interest in a class of securities exceeding the nominal value of £25,000; or
  - d. any body:
    - I. of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management and to which you are appointed or nominated by the Council;
    - II. exercising functions of a public nature;
    - III. established for charitable purposes;
    - IV. one of whose principal purposes includes the influence of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union), of which you are a member or in a position of general control or management
- “well-being” means a condition of contentedness, healthiness and happiness. Anything that could be said to affect a person’s quality of life, either positively or negatively, is likely to affect their well-being. It is not restricted to matters affecting a person’s financial position.
- “close association” means someone that you are in regular contact with over a period of time who is more than an acquaintance or colleague. It may be a friend, a business associate or someone you know through general social contacts. It is someone who a reasonable member of the public might think you would be prepared to favour or disadvantage when discussing a matter that affects them.

- “member of your family” means partner, i.e. someone you are married to, your civil partner, or someone you live with in a similar capacity, a parent, a parent-in-law, a son or daughter, a stepson or stepdaughter, the child of a partner, a brother or sister, a brother or sister of your partner, a grandparent, a grandchild, an uncle or aunt, a nephew or niece, and the partners of any of these people.

APPENDIX 2 - DISCLOSABLE PECUNIARY INTERESTS

This note explains the requirements of the Localism Act 2011 (Ss 29-34) in relation to Disclosable Pecuniary Interests. These provisions are enforced by criminal sanction.

1 Notification of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

A Disclosable Pecuniary Interest is an interest of yourself or your partner (which means spouse or civil partner, a person with whom you are living as husband or wife, or a person with whom you are living as if you are civil partners) within the following descriptions:

Interest	Description
Employment, office, trade, profession or vocation	An employment, office trade profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain.
Sponsorship	Any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from the Council) made or provided within the relevant period in respect of any expenses incurred by M in carrying out duties as a member, or towards the election expenses of M. This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.
Contract	Any contract which is made between the relevant person (or a body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest) and the Council: (a) under which goods or services are to be provided or works are to be executed; and (b) which has not been fully discharged.
Land	Any beneficial interest in land which is within the area of the Council.
Licences	Any licence (alone or jointly with others) to occupy land in the area of the Council for a month or longer.
Corporate tenancies	Any tenancy where (to M's knowledge): (a) the landlord is the Council; and (b) the tenant is body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest.
Securities	Any beneficial interest in securities of a body where: (a) that body (to M's knowledge) has a place of business or land in the area of the Council; and (b) either: (i) the total nominal value of the securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or(ii) if the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class.

DOGMERSFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

These descriptions on interests are subject to the following definitions; “the Act” means the Localism Act 2011;

- “body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest” means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director, or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest;
- “director” includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society;
- “land” includes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which carries with it a right for the relevant person (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income;
- “M” means the person M referred to in section 30 of the Act; “member” includes a co-opted member;
- “relevant authority” means the Council of which M is a member;
- “relevant period” means the period of 12 months ending with the day on which M gives a notification for the purposes of section 30(1) of the Act;
- “relevant person” in relation to Disclosable Pecuniary Interests means M or M’s spouse or civil partner or a person with whom M is living as husband and wife or a person with whom M is living as if they were civil partners;
- “securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000() and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society.

2 Dispensations

The Council or Clerk may grant you a dispensation, but only in limited circumstances, to enable you to participate and vote on a matter in which you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest.

3 Offences

It is a criminal offence to:

- fail to notify the Proper Officer of any Disclosable Pecuniary Interest within 28 days of election
- fail to disclose a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest at a meeting if it is not on the register
- fail to notify the Proper Officer within 28 days of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest that is not on the register that you have disclosed to a meeting
- Participate in any discussion or vote on a matter in which you have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest
- Knowingly or recklessly providing information that is false or misleading in notifying the Proper Officer of a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or in disclosing such interest to a meeting

The criminal penalties available to a court are to impose a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and disqualification from being a Councillor for up to 5 years.
