DOGMERSFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

STANDING ORDERS 2021

These Standing Orders are the written rules of the Parish Council: they govern the Council's internal organisation, administrative and procurement procedures. Standing Orders detail the number, place, quorum, notices and procedures for Council and committee meetings. The Standing Orders in bold type set out legal and statutory requirements. These Standing Orders do not however reference all statutory and legal requirements which apply to Parish Councils, but they help to ensure that the Council operates effectively and within the law. Standing Orders sit next to the Financial Regulations which regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of the Council.
